CPAANT Regional Meeting

The Citizens Police Academy Association of North Texas monthly meeting was held in Euless on Saturday, Nov. 1. We had a good turnout, lots of good food. Our own Chief Brown gave a very informative speech on how well the City, Police Department and ECPAAA all work together and help each other. He encouraged all the Alumni Associations to make themselves a valuable part of the City and Police Department.

After the meeting adjourned, everyone met at Raven's Grill for lunch.

From the President Denise Miles

I recently began a new job at the American Heart Association; our motto is Learn and Live. I got to thinking about how much this motto relates to criminal justice, policing, and life in general.

Bob sped down Harwood, got caught, and got a ticket. Learn and live. Sue left her garage door open and her bike was stolen. Learn and live. Mary gave her credit card number to a phone solicitor and became a victim of ID theft. Yep, you guessed it.

We learn and we live folks. Sometimes the lessons are harder than others. Hopefully, no matter how difficult the lesson, we learn from our mistakes. We've all heard the saying, fool me once, shame on you... fool me twice, shame on me.

The cool thing is that we all have the opportunity to take what we learn and make our communities safer. Obey the law, pay attention, look out for our neighbors, and help protect innocent victims like children and elders.

I encourage you to start a chain of learning. Pass one thing you've learned this year about crime prevention and neighborhood policing to one other person. Then encourage them to do the same. I think we'll all be amazed at how far the chain reaches. Learn and Live.

Happy Birthday ECPAAA Members!
