Guest Speaker, Elmer Boyd

An Evening with a "Living Legend"

Dallas Detective Elmer Boyd, (Retired) and Euless warrant officer 1978-1989 (Retired) . Officer Boyd was a Dallas Detective on Duty the day President Kennedy was shot. He was assigned to work the murder of President Kennedy, knew Jack Ruby and sat in the cell with Lee Harvey Oswald. He has been seen on many film clips escorting Oswald through the Dallas Police Department. Officer Boyd has worked 100's of murders and will talk about some interesting cases. This is one evening to remember for sure. Be early for a good seat. We have invited as our Special Guests, City Council members, City Staffs, Bedford Alumni members and Hurst Alumni members.

Congratulations

Rose-Marie Stevens retired from Verizon on May 30. She plans to sleep, relax, spring clean, and sew. Happy retirement and enjoy your well-deserved free time!

Summer time is here again and the Eules Police Summer Camp is well under way. We have forty three children enrolled in this first week school, and we have fifty scheduled for the second week. The first week has been a smashing success, and all the kids really seem to be enjoying themselves.

I want to thank the Alumni members that have been volunteering at the camp, and to the Association itself for the financial contribution. This camp would have a much more difficult time if it were not from the assistance of the association. The camp has allowed the Police Department to structure a positive relationship with those kids that are involved.

From the President

Onasis and his two teen friends running around shooting hoops; Diana trailing Aiden as he scoots on his truck; Manuel washing his car; a girl rolling down the hill on her scooter; Solange with her tiny new puppy; John and Mike having a beer. This is the view from my front porch. What's your view like?

I realize we don't have many homes with true "porches" in Eules. But, we have doorsteps, front yards, driveways, and clean streets that serve the same purpose. The tradition of adding porches to homes goes back centuries. The porch was as much a place to sit, talk, debate, and snack as it was a place to watch the kids play.

In our neighborhoods, the porch is the bridge between private and public. Or in my case, a bridge between peace and chaos (smile). But a few nights each week, I choose chaos. I grab some tea or wine, pull up a chair and join the fun. I talk to my neighbors, pet their dogs, shoot hoops with the boys, braid the girls' hair, wash my car, wave to the families riding their bikes, and watch the geckos scamper.

The porch is a great tool for each of us to use to build stronger communities. I know all of my neighbors and their kids. When a dog gets lost, I know who it belongs to. Same with a kid. And my neighbors know something is wrong if my garage door is open but Brett's or my car is not around. Strong relationships build strong communities and using the porch is a great start. I highly recommend it.

But when the sun sets and the conversations wrap up, one of my favorite songs sums it up best... the view I love the most is my front porch looking in.

Speaking of "watchdogs", grab your pooch and head out to the Villages of Bear Creek Dog Park. Our new double-gated, fenced, 3-acre, off-leash dog area is open 6 days a week during daylight hours. www.eules.org/pacs
